

APRIL 2009

House Beautiful

it's time to get COZY!

the
WHITE HOUSE
 DECORATOR
 PAGE 118

"Cozy, for me,
 is very tactile.
 It's about the way things feel
 to the touch."

MICHAEL S. SMITH

$4.50

0 75470 08458 4

FLIP! FOR DECORATING

Wallpaper

After papering her daughter's bedroom, Elizabeth Mayhew just kept going: She used the remnants to cover books, line shelves, make place mats

By ELIZABETH MAYHEW
Photographs by ANNIE SCHLECHTER

1. Give your dresser drawers a lift by lining them.
2. Wrap notebooks and an empty soup can for decorative desk accessories.
3. Cover old shoeboxes for stylish storage.
4. Slip a cutting in a store-bought frame for instant (and inexpensive) artwork.
5. Laminate equal-size swatches to make a set of place mats.

My daughter's room—covered from floor to ceiling—in Albert Hadley's Reddish Rose by Hinson.

WATCH ELIZABETH
on NBC's Today Show. Her book, Flip! for Decorating, will be published in April by Ballantine.